

De Patta Asks Public To Collect Scrap Metal

Although still in the dark as far as plans for scrap metal collection are concerned, Frank A. De Patta, Redwood City salvage chairman, does know all about the current scrap metal drive and in this connection today asked all residents of Redwood City and vicinity to:

1. Search their premises for all kinds of old metal—car parts, old stoves, iron beds, etc.;
2. Take them to the Victory Scrap Bank on Broadway just east of Main St., or
3. Telephone De Patta's office (201-W) sometime this week—the earlier the better for those handling the drive—so the salvage material may be picked up next Sunday by volunteer truck owners who are donating their vehicles for the campaign.

"Scrap metal is essential to the production of steel armaments," De Patta said in asking co-operation of every citizen in again putting Redwood City "over the top" in the drive. "Reserve stocks created by the scrap drive of 1942 have been steadily depleted. Even now California mills are feeling the shortage of cast iron scrap. The scrap 'bank' must be replenished and enlarged." De Patta said he had been advised that California's quota of scrap metal for the current six months is 709,500 tons—an increase of 37.25 per cent over the past six months.

He is lining up a number of truck owners to gather the metal next Sunday and take it to the Victory Scrap Bank. The truckmen will furnish their trucks free of charge, being supplied only with ration coupons so they may replenish their gasoline to the amount used. Because of the shortage of tires and gasoline, and the limited number of trucks available, De Patta urges that everyone who can do so take his metal to the pile on Broadway, which already is beginning to grow. However, collection will be made gladly in Redwood City and immediate vicinity, he said, if his office is telephoned.

As to the waste paper campaign, which has been announced by the War Production Board, De Patta expects notification of procedure soon. Meanwhile citizens are urged to save their papers and magazines, or tie them in bundles and leave them beside their garbage cans.

SCHOOLS: Rainy Days Will Shorten Pupils' Hours

"Rainy day sessions" during the winter months again will be observed in the San Carlos and Redwood City schools, Miss Ruth Melendy and Andrew Spinaz, superintendents, announced today.

Redwood City schools have been functioning under this plan for several years, while the San Carlos School has not used it for approximately a year and a half.

On rainy days the lunch hour will be shortened one half hour—from 12 till 12:30—in the Redwood City schools, and pupils will be dismissed one half hour earlier.

In the San Carlos School, the noon hour will be shortened only 15 minutes, and supervised activities, such as games, art, discussions, will be conducted in the class rooms during that time.

Correspondingly, classes will be dismissed 15 minutes earlier: Grades 1 through 3 at 2; Grades 4 through 6 at 3; and Grades 7 and 8 at 3:20. Afternoon kindergarten and first grade classes will maintain regular schedules.

SEQUOIA PLAN
Tentative plans for a Friday night recreation center at Sequoia High School for students were made Tuesday by a committee appointed by Dan Sagehorn, commissioner of welfare.

Purpose of the recreation center is to provide some place on Friday nights where Sequoians can dance, play cards and games and have jam sessions.

Although nothing is definite, the committee plans to divide the district into three communities, Menlo Park and Ravenswood, San Carlos-Belmont, and Redwood City.

BLOOD BANK: Hospitals Receive Regular Supplies

The San Mateo County Blood Bank continues to supply fresh blood and frozen plasma without cost to the U.S. naval hospitals at Oak Knoll and Treasure Island, officials said today.

Regular pickups are made twice weekly by navy station wagons, but recently shipments have increased due to needs of wounded men brought back from combat area. At Oak Knoll refrigerators holding 200 units of frozen plasma, and at Treasure Island 100 units of frozen plasma are constantly replenished by the blood bank. At the same time, enough blood and frozen plasma is always kept in the blood bank for emergency use in the hospitals of the county.

In keeping with the promise made to the community by the blood bank at its inception, 1000 units of frozen plasma have been stored and distributed throughout the county, in Redwood City, South San Francisco, Daly City, Borden's in Burlingame, the Community Hospital, and the blood bank for immediate use. Five thousand five hundred in case of war emergency, and six units of blood have been taken at the blood bank since its opening on May 23, 1942. The amount of transfusions given at Oak Knoll during the past months averaged more than ten a day.

Donors are not permitted to give blood more than once every three months, but the following South San Mateo County persons have the outstanding record of having donated five times since the blood bank was set up in this county:

Claude Swayse, Menlo Park; Chester R. Ferguson, Half Moon Bay; Mrs. Elizabeth B. Gentry, San Carlos, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hawkins, Redwood City.

Double Feature At Opera House

SAN FRANCISCO—Two major attractions, Draper and Adler, famous dance and harmonica duo, and Marjorie Lawrence, prima donna soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Co. will be Opera House attractions of the Opera Assn. on Saturday evening, Nov. 6, and Wednesday evening, Nov. 10, respectively.

Draper and Adler need no introduction to San Francisco as their performances in previous seasons have always been attended by capacity audiences. Draper, born in Florence, Italy, of American parents, began his career as a classic dancer, but later developed his own unique art of combining the classic with modern dancing. Today, he stands alone in a style of dancing that he himself created.

Adler, who has been teaming up with Draper since 1940, has just returned from a tour of the Mediterranean battle fronts where he has given concerts with his famous harmonica. It was the same instrument that he used in appearing with all of the country's outstanding symphony orchestras. The Draper and Adler concert here on Saturday night, Nov. 6, will feature a new repertoire.

Marjorie Lawrence stands today on the dizzy height that is the objective of so many artists. Born in Australia, she began her training as a young girl first in Melbourne and then in Paris. Then came a three-year contract with the Paris Opera. She made her sensational debut at the Metropolitan in the season of 1935-36. It was in 1939 that she was stricken with infantile paralysis and for a while her career seemed doomed. However, with a courage that has electrified the artistic world, she battled for her recovery and today she can again carry out the most exacting operatic roles. Her appearance here Wednesday evening, Nov. 10, will be her first concert program here.

Tickets for both events are now on sale at the opera box office, Sherman, Clay & Co., EXbrook 8585.

CIVILIAN DEFENSE: R.C. War Council Changes Meeting Dates, Hears Reports

Meetings of the Redwood City War Council will be held once a month, on the first Wednesday, instead of bimonthly, as previously, the council agreed Monday night.

Because the first Wednesday of November is only one week away, the council decided to hold its next meeting in December.

Civilian defense problems were not pressing enough, members felt, to warrant the bimonthly meetings. The council emphasized, however, that the change of meeting did not mean relaxation of existing civilian defense organization. All services will be kept up to par and attempts will be made to augment personnel, especially for war service work.

Belmont Man Found Dead

BELMONT—Raymond Schaubel, 56-year-old candy and cigar jobber was dead today and Coroner William F. Crosby was investigating possibility of suicide as the cause after his body was found at his home at 1501 O'Neal Ave., Sunday afternoon.

The body was found by Schaubel's brother, Fred Schaubel, of Redwood City, when the latter came to call. Schaubel's body was found sitting in a chair. He was shot through the heart, a .22 rifle near his feet on an ottoman. Coroner Crosby said the shooting occurred between three and five days ago. The dead man's brother told Crosby, Schaubel had been in poor health for some time and had threatened to take his life.

through your local community campaign

You will help won't you?

Never has there been more suffering in this world. Never have so many war-broken people looked to America...to YOU...for help. In past years you may have given to several or many war relief agencies. This year you give ONCE for ALL these agencies when you give to your local War Chest and through it to the National War Fund. Your dollars go to seventeen participating war relief services now combined with your own local agencies in this nationwide drive.

Some of your dollars will go to the USO to comfort and entertain men of the armed forces.

Some of it will go to lend a helping hand to our sailors of the Merchant Marine.

Some of it will help ease the suffering and hunger of our stricken allies and help support hospitals and children's homes...both here and abroad.

Some of it will go to local welfare agencies and help care for those in need in your own community.

Some of it will bring cheerful remembrance to our lonesome war prisoners in Japan and Germany.

Make your gift this year large...large enough to go around. At least give double what you gave last year. The need is many times greater.

EMPLOYEES: County Group Attends Courthouse Party

Two hundred members of the San Mateo County Employees Assn. and their guests transformed the county courthouse basement into a Mexican street scene Monday for a fiesta and grand Baile combined. The affair was attended by all county elective officials, including the entire board of supervisors, superior court judges and county executive.

On the committee with Honore were Mona Christensen, Ruth Sullivan, Blanche Walsh, Eliza-a dance orchestra, vocal selections and by Margaretha Schade, Spanish dancer.

The business meeting scheduled to precede the fiesta was cut short for the fiesta. Hal Honore, party chairman, explained. Refreshments included a buffet supper of Mexican beans, salad, pickles and olives.

Court Reverses R.C. Decision

Residential sanctity of the secluded, exclusive, oak-studded acres which comprise the Town of Atherton, rivalled only by Hillsborough in its development of rich Peninsula estates, was threatened today when the State District Court of Appeals reversed Judge Maxwell McNutt of San Mateo County Superior Court.

At stake is the zoning of 639 acres belonging to the Harry Fee estate.

The lands fronts El Camino Real north of Selby Lane.

Under an Atherton ordinance it is strictly residential. Bank of America, administrators of the Fee estate, challenged the Atherton zoning ordinance in a court action which labelled it unconstitutional. The bank contended that the property is confronted with commercial development across the highway, and argued that the 639 acres are worth $40,000 if rezoned, but can be sold for not more than $7500.

Chest Maintains Office To Aid R.C. Contributors

A Community Chest and War Fund office at 2120 Broadway is open from 10 a.m. till 9 p.m. during the week, for the convenience of persons who have not been personally contacted by a chest worker, Campaign Chmn. S. D. Herkner stressed today. Mail subscriptions also are welcome, he said.

Mrs. Evelyn Carlson, campaign secretary, is on duty there at all times and pledge cards will be filed on mail orders as is done on canvass subscriptions.

District 27 is the second district to make a complete report from the residential section. Soliciting was done by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, under the leadership of William Morrissey. A total of $91, as compared to $35 from the same area last year, was reported.

Friendly Acres, covered by teachers and PTA of the Garfield School, made a partial report of $61.50.

From the industrial employees comes $57.05, making a total of $2697.10 from employees in the various plants in Redwood City.

Walter Kellogg, chairman of the industrial committee, stated that the S&W plant had completed its report, with the results of $150 from the company and $741.35 from employees. Almost a 100 per cent subscription from the personnel is represented in this figure.

Martha Flynn, chairman of advance gifts committee section of the drive, reported that his report on advance gifts is forthcoming. None of the receipts from this portion of the drive has been counted in the total to date.

R.C. Girl Has Polio

Diagnosis of the illness of a 16-year-old Redwood City girl as infantile paralysis and a recheck of County Health Department records has boosted the total poliomyelitis cases in San Mateo County for the year to 44.

State records credited the county with 45, a discrepancy not immediately explained.

Dr. C. C. Gans' records showed 18 cases in September compared to 19 on the state report.

The incidence of the disease since June 1 was 42 cases by county count, 43 by state count.

Deed Reveals Sale Of R.C. Property

Purchase of business property on Main St., Redwood City, for $19,000 was disclosed in a deed recorded at the office of the county recorder. The seller was California Pacific Title and Trust Co. and the buyer, Louis Grana of Redwood City.

The building involved houses the Church of Christ, an automobile parts firm, a former county office and the American News Co.

Restaurant-Home Food Situation Worse

BY ROLLY LANGLEY

The problem of distributing food fairly between restaurants and homes becomes more serious as food supplies dwindle, and observers both in and out of government suggest reforms.

"If the public believes sacrifices are necessary, it must next be convinced that these sacrifices are being shared equally by all. There is no better method to achieve this than by wiping out obvious inequalities, such as unlimited restaurant meals to which the wealthy have access," reported the sub-committee on food allocation to the food advisory committee of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

This expression by specialists in the Office of Economic Warfare, Department of Interior, WFA, Lend Lease, War Department and the Department of State, reflects the opinion of great numbers who eat most of their meals at home.

But people forced to eat in restaurants take a different view. They claim that under present rationing regulations, restaurants are not able to furnish them with well-rounded meals through the week. Meat and butter are particularly scarce in restaurants, regardless of price, and some metropolitan war workers complain they aren't able to buy a fair share.

Conditions are worse in fast-growing communities than where business has not increased. For example, meat is more plentiful at present in New York City restaurants than the Bay Area, where some establishments observe two meatless days and fill less than half the orders on other days.

Restaurants sell approximately 20 per cent of all food consumed, if figured on a dollar basis. (Considerably less if figured on a weight basis.) With concentration of manpower around war industries, it is estimated more people are eating in restaurants than the Bay Area. Thus, the problem is not one to be put off.

It is further complicated by the number of service men who eat rationed food in restaurants. Individual soldiers probably eat out less than five meals per month, but collectively, they account for a big volume of food. No one begrudges the service men the opportunity to enjoy leaves away from their stations, but one restaurant man suggests that coupons be given, so that the food consumed by armed forces in civilian eating places can be replaced.

Numerous restaurant proprietors would welcome a coupon rationing setup for civilians as well. They say it would be fairer from every angle.

"If we could collect ration points from our customers, we could serve them what they want, and they wouldn't think we're trying to chisel them," one chef of a large dining room told me.

"If a diner wanted a 14-ounce steak and could surrender the points so we could get another one, we'd like it better—and so would most customers. Maybe some people eat here to keep from using their ration points at home. But the big majority of our customers eat here for convenience, or from necessity. They don't own kitchens," another pointed out.

Under the present plan, those who eat in restaurants, those who don't, and the restaurant proprietors think food is being distributed unfairly. Those in favor of the coupon plan to restaurants say difficulties of administration would soon be ironed out.

S.C. Police Capture Burglar

SAN CARLOS—Two alert San Carlos police officers Wednesday arrested a confessed burglar in an attempt to break into a San Carlos service station a short while after he apparently had burglarized a service station in Redwood City.

They jailed Antonio Brown Jr., 32, a welder who gave his address as 1242-97th Ave., Oakland.

Police said he is a two-time loser, with a record in San Quentin and Folsom, once for burglary and again for destruction of public property.

The San Carlos prowl car checked the gasoline station at Brittain Ave. and El Camino Real at 2:30 a.m. When they checked it an hour later they saw a car parked nearby, the door of the station open and a man crouching behind an automobile.

Officers E. A. Maillard and John Hosford made the arrest.

Brown confessed the attempted burglary in San Carlos.

In his car the San Carlos police found scores of gasoline ration stamps and some small change taken from the Gilmore station in Redwood City at Hopkins and El Camino Real earlier.

Schaubel Estate Goes to Brother

Raymond Schaubel, 56-year-old candy and cigaret jobber who was found dead Monday at his Belmont home, left his estate to his brother, Fred S. Schaubel of Redwood City, according to an holographic will filed for probate in superior court today. The will was written June 19, 1943.

Mr. Schaubel had been in poor health prior to his death. His body was found in a chair, a .22 caliber rifle nearby. He had been shot through the heart.

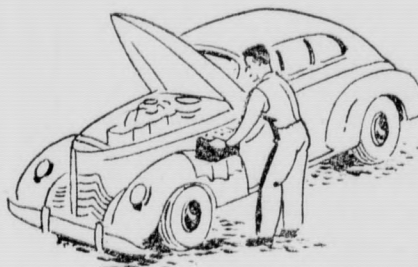

The buildings and grounds of the White House cover about 16 acres.

Interested in attending and who have not received an invitation are asked to telephone the secretary of the organization, Miss Sara Boekenog of Burlingame.

Special Prayer Will Be Held

A special prayer service for the health and safety of missionaries, held as prisoners of war, will be conducted Saturday at the Redwood City Seventh-Day Adventist Church.

Eighty-nine adults and 27 children—members of Adventist missionary families and parts of families left in fields afar when the war broke—are still interned in Germany, India, Japan, North Borneo, China and the Philippines. Mr. Prout, pastor, said when announcing this special service.

Reports indicate that three of those restrained in China may possibly be repatriated and returned on the MS "Gripsholm," now on her second trip. They are Rev. B. L. Anderson, Amoy; Dr. C. L. Dale, Shanghai, and Mrs. D. D. Coffin, Canton.

Mr. Prout says that the service here is part of a worldwide prayer program that will be carried out in all Adventist churches this week.

Woman Dies Instantly, Man Later

Crushed in a large sedan which was struck by a northbound Peninsula train at the Fifth Ave. crossing south of Redwood City, Miss Fern D. Olsen, 20, and her brother-in-law, Walter L. Parker, 25, were fatally injured at 9:10 a.m. Monday.

Miss Olsen was killed instantly and Parker died at Community Hospital at 1:05 p.m.

The car, crossing the tracks from west to east, was caught squarely by the locomotive and carried five blocks. Efforts of two tow cars to remove it from the tracks failed and the Southern Pacific was forced to use a switch engine to dislodge the vehicle from the front of the blood-stained locomotive.

The car was registered to Mrs. A. R. McNeill, 1290 Magnolia Ave., San Carlos. Chief Dep. Sheriff Walter Moore explained that the automobile had been sent to the Buckley Garage, where Parker was employer, for repairs. Parker, Moore said, was taking his sister-in-law to her place of employment in a Main St. grocery store when the accident happened.

The SP's main northbound line was tied up for an hour by the accident.

Dep. Coroner Lewis E. Franklin said Miss Olsen's body was terribly crushed, one leg being severed.

The engineer, whose name was given as A. Colen, 78 Buchanan St., San Francisco, told Moore that he saw the automobile drive onto the crossing immediately in front of the train. He said he blew the whistle and set the brakes. The conductor was Frank Fernandez of 715 Esther Lane, Redwood City.

Parker was taken first to Redwood City Clinic then to Community Hospital. He was said to be suffering from probable head, back and internal injuries, plus a broken right arm and broken right leg.

He, his wife, their infant child and Miss Olsen lived at 150 Columbia Ave. near the scene of the accident. Mrs. Lila J. Parker, the wife, said her husband was using the McNeill car to take Miss Olsen to work.

Miss Olsen has lived here for a year, Franklin disclosed. She leaves a mother and father in Veblen, S. D.; two other sisters, Mrs. Kermitt Johnson of St. Paul, Minn., and Miss Dorothy Olsen of Veblen; and a brother, Kenneth Olsen of Grass Valley, Calif.

Menlo Park City Council Passes Curfew Law

MENLO PARK — By a unanimous vote of the four members present, Menlo Park City Council Tuesday passed a curfew ordinance prohibiting minors under 18 years of age from playing, idling, loitering or strolling on the streets or in public places between the hours of 11 p.m. and daylight the following morning.

Councilman William Cutter was absent and Councilman Paul Bryant cast his affirmative vote only after he had inserted into the minutes his objections to the 11 o'clock beginning time for the curfew, although he agreed to that time for week ends.

The adopted ordinance is a departure from the hours stipulated in other cities of the county which begin at 10 p.m. It fixes the triple responsibility of the minors themselves, their parents and proprietors of public places in conformity with curfew ordinances of other cities of the county.

In pre-vote discussion Police Chief Thomas Kearney, called upon for an opinion, intimated that 10 o'clock might be too early to expect minors to return from motion pictures during week ends, but suggested to the council that a breach of uniformity with other San Mateo County cities might also inject difficulties of enforcement into the situation.

Councilman Edward McGurran pointed out that it was essential to have a fair ordinance as it was to have an ordinance which was designed for the good purpose of decreasing juvenile delinquency.

The consensus of the council was that 10 o'clock was too early to ring the curfew on week ends and with the exception of Councilman Bryant, other councilmen were of the opinion that 11 o'clock was a better hour throughout the week.

In an agenda of miscellaneous items, the council voted to accept with regrets the resignation of Marcella W. Cleese from the Menlo Park Planning Commission because of a press of other duties.

Councilman Charles P. Burgess' recommendation that R. N. Hipp be sanctioned by the council to fill the place vacated by Mrs. Cleese was tabled until Mayor Charles Oram has had an opportunity to confer with the planning commission on the matter.

A motion was passed, in accordance with government requirements, authorizing that a surety bond in the sum of $1000 be taken out by the city, on Chief Kearney, property custodian, as indemnitor for civilian defense property, such as gas masks and special fire fighting equipment for incendiary bombs. The city pays 40 1/2 per cent of the cost and civilian defense the remaining 59 1/2.

City Clerk Fannie Kurtz was named as a representative of Menlo Park to act as finance officer to handle funds to be returned to city governments for expenditures since June 1 of this year, a procedure allowable since the federal government appropriated money for this purpose and apportioned it among the 48 states.

This procedure is necessary, it was pointed out, in order for Menlo Park to be eligible for additional civilian defense equipment.

The council voted to accept the $25 check of Mrs. R. Jones Herbig to be held by the city treasurer along with a previous check of similar amount donated toward the establishment of a memorial roll of honor for Menlo

Civil Service Argument

San Mateo County Civil Service Commission and the County Employees Assn. were at loggerheads today on the subject of residential requirements for the first series of civil service examinations announced by the commission.

The commission announced that residential requirements would be waived, although residents of San Mateo County would be given preference.

E. H. Cosgriff, attorney for the employee association, notified the commission by letter that such action is contrary to the civil service charter amendment.

Cosgriff quoted Section 6 of the amendment which requires "applicants for examination must be residents of the county for at least one year" except for technical and specialized positions.

George Stevens, county personnel officer, explained that about 30 applications for the examinations had been received, and that applications will not be received after Saturday.

"It may be necessary," he said, "to seek applicants outside of the county to provide an eligibility list from which the county departments may draw replacements."

Redwood City Girl on College Committee

Miss Malkah Wolper, 1203 Harrison Ave., in her first year at San Jose State College has been chosen as a member of the social affairs committee. The group is giving a Halloween dance Oct. 30, and has invited 300 engineers from Santa Clara University to attend.

Miss Wolper is studying occupational therapy at San Jose State.

Julia says—
Give a
PARTY!

OF COURSE we all know there's a war on—but in a way the war makes it even more important that we give the children a chance to observe Hallowe'en in a fitting manner. It seems to me the youngsters definitely feel, even if they aren't aware of it, the tension and excitement of war-time living. And it's a lot wiser to have them celebrate the Witches' Eve right in the home than to let them roam around the streets where there's always a possibility of their getting into trouble on Hallowe'en.

Why not suggest the theme of a special party to them, let them work out the details themselves and have their friends in for an exciting (but safe) evening?

For instance, a Pirates' Party! Let the invitations be written in blood-red ink... decorate with skull and bones... warn of spooks... insist that every guest wear some part of a pirate costume.

... costume details could include: fierce false mustaches... bandanas tied on the head pirate-style... cardboard rings in ears... black patch on eye... house decorations may involve: paper skulls... skeletons... bones... red lights or candles.

... entertainment can be as varied as imagination allows, for example: a darkened "cave of the winds," where a vacuum cleaner moans and each guest shakes hands with a chicken's claw... blindfolded guests "kiss the binnacle" three times, twice kissing a tin pan but the third time dipping the face into a bowl of flour... "walking the plank" (the plank is held just free of the floor while the young guest, blindfolded, climbs onto it; the plank is rocked while the guest is told to walk forward on it, over deep water; then the guest is made to jump and finds he was still only three inches over the floor!)

... the "treasure," of course, is exciting Hallowe'en refreshment, and here are some suggestions:

Evil-Eye Sandwiches
(Peanut Butter and Jelly or Jam, in Hallowe'en Cut-outs)

Grog
(Hot Chocolate or Cocoa)

Pieces of Eight
(Molasses Jack-o'-Lantern Cookies)

Cannon Balls
(Popcorn or Popcorn Balls)

And by the time that's all over, it's too late to get into trouble, outdoors!

Redwood City To Concentrate on Scrap Drive

Redwood City will not conduct a special scrap paper drive, but will concentrate on the collection of scrap metal, Frank A. De Patta, salvage chairman, announced today.

A bulletin received from the general salvage branch of the War Production Board in San Francisco notified De Patta that if satisfactory collection agencies were not available, no drive for scrap paper should be conducted because "the piling up of newspapers presents a fire hazard and without means of transportation to the mills, it is useless."

De Patta pointed out, however, that those wishing to contribute paper still can do so by tying it in bundles and leaving it beside the garbage can for the scavenger collection agency. The Redwood City scavenger service has promised it will pick up the paper under such conditions, but not if it is left loose and scattered.

De Patta emphasized the need for scrap metal and urged Redwood City residents to locate all such material available and contribute it during the current drive. Collections will be conducted Sunday with trucks contributed by Redwood City residents.

Those persons having scrap metal may contribute it, either by telephoning De Patta at RC 201-W or by leaving it at the Victory Scrap Bank, Walnut and Broadway. They also may leave it in front of their homes before 9 a.m. Sunday for the trucks.

De Patta said enough trucks will be available to make collections outside the city limits, but declared such collections would be made only if contributors notified authorities of the availability of material.

School children this week are distributing 5000 copies of a salvage drive proclamation and civilian defense block matrons are contacting persons not reached by the students.

De Patta said 1000 copies of instructions have been sent to civilian defense personnel urging co-operation in Sunday's campaign.

Wardens are being asked to volunteer their services in manning the trucks which will be stationed at the Victory Scrap Bank Sunday.

IOOF Lodge Observes Anniversary

Fifty-five members and guests observed the 81st anniversary of Bayview Lodge 109, IOOF, at a dinner meeting here last night.

Lt. Robert (Bones) Hamilton of the naval office of personnel procurement was guest speaker on the occasion of Navy Day.

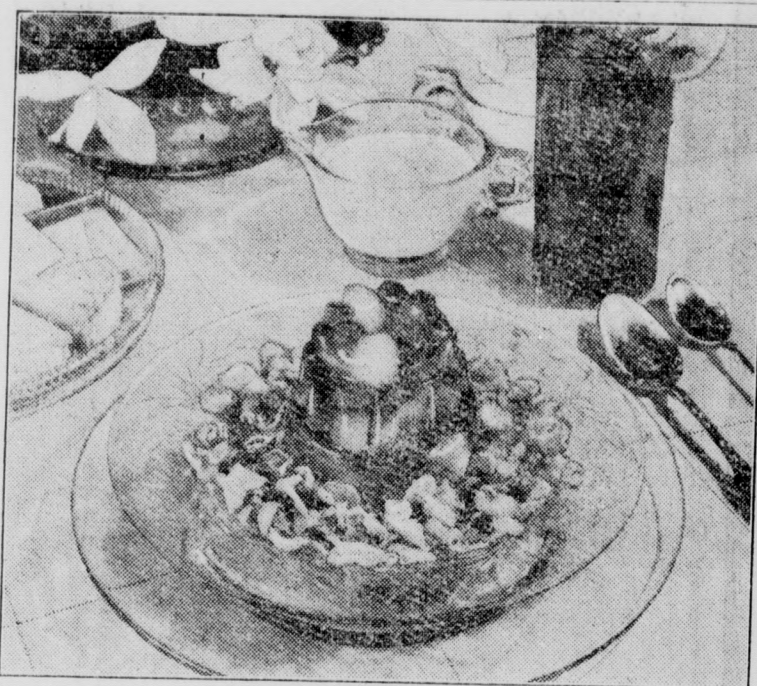

Lieutenant Hamilton praised the work of the WAVES and said the navy needs more of them to relieve men for active duty.

Three new members attended the meeting. They were Aris Partidos, William Reynolds and Otto Bruhn.

Noble Grand Lloyd Mason was in charge of the meeting, assisted by Vice Noble Grand L. E. McQuiston.

Among those present at the anniversary dinner were several 25-year and 50-year members of the local organization.

Among out of town guests present were Homer Perry, Sonora Lodge 10; Maurice W. Parker, Charlest, N. H. Lodge 83; K. Von Wieren, Palo Alto Lodge 205; C. M. Christenson, Garden City Lodge 142; John Lakey, Carman, Okla., Lodge 84; J. E. Ford, Klamath Lodge 41; C. W. Kincaid, Iowa Lodge 13; Wiley E. Rationing Has Created New Luncheon Dishes!

WE can thank our red, white and blue ration stamps for creating new foods and new combinations of foods for luncheon and supper.

Not long ago, New York's famous Waldorf-Astoria began featuring familiar, everyday breakfast cereals in a wonderful new way. . . . On the luncheon and supper menus of their glamorous Starlight Roof.

Feature star among the cereal-and-fruit luncheons was "Toasties Waldorf." A delicious new combination of familiar foods. Best of all, it's the kind of dish that every woman can make in her own home quickly, conveniently and with no cooking required. "Toasties Waldorf" is just as good as it sounds. On a heaping bed of crisp Post "Toasties"—in your gayest individual bowl—center a shimmering fruit gelatin, made with assorted fresh fruits. Then serve with milk, light cream or sugar. Try it as the main dish in this menu: A hot soup with wafers, "Toasties Waldorf" and your favorite dessert.

Then, too, it is satisfying to know that when you give your family one of these cereal dishes, it will contain three foods from the "Basic Seven" food groups recommended by our National Nutrition program.

WAR CHEST: County Drive Still Far Short of Goal

One of the six local agencies which will benefit from contributions to the San Mateo County War Chest is the San Mateo Preventorium.

For more than a score of years this institution has taken into its fold hundreds of youngsters from all over the county and with good nourishing food, personal attention and medical care has prevented them from falling victims to tuberculosis.

In most instances the children came from families who were unable to pay for such care. In such cases the preventorium has been able to nurse these children back to health without charge to their parents.

There are hundreds of healthy San Mateo County men and women walking the streets today who owe their new lease on life to the care they were given by the San Mateo Preventorium.

"The San Mateo Preventorium is a mighty good reason for making a donation to the San Mateo County War Chest," observed E. H. Cosgriff, chairman of the war chest organization.

Meanwhile the climb toward the county War Chest's goal of $255,580 by next Monday was making slow headway.

Figures up to date revealed that the county's contributions as a whole to the War Chest have reached $49,549.34.

All Lights Permissible On Monday

Redwood City, for one, will keep its fingers crossed and will retain one set of dimout street lights when the "lights go on again" in this part of the world next week.

Dimout regulations which have left seacoast and certain inland areas in gloomy half-light for nearly a year have been ordered lifted next Monday in a move that reflected a measure of optimism and increased security from enemy submarine action.

The restrictions were originally imposed in August, 1942, to reduce "sky glow" which silhouetted ships offshore and made them easy marks for nocturnal submarine prowling.

These measures were relaxed three weeks ago to permit certain lighting, but next week all restrictions will be lifted and Redwood City will again take on normal appearance, with outdoor electric signs, unshielded street lights, full beam automobile headlights, blazing store windows and theater marquees.

City Mgr. Robert Mead expressed surprise at the new order.

"I thought the last modification stabilized the situation for a time," he said.

Chief task facing the city is removing of 700 metal shields on as many small street lights in the residential area. This time consuming task will be started early in the week, Mead promised.

In the business district he proposes to light one circuit which has been blacked out completely. The shielded circuit now in operation will be retained that way—just in case, Mead explained.

The city-maintained neon signs advertising Redwood City's advantages will be relighted.

Lt. Gen. Delos C. Emmons, western defense commander, warned that regulations relative to blackouts remain in force, which means that all lights turned on next Monday must be equipped so they can be extinguished on next Monday in the event of an air raid alarm.

The Western Defense Command in announcing the end of the dimout on Nov. 1 said the action was ordered jointly by the war and navy departments, the Office of Civilian Defense and the War Production Board.

Hope was expressed that the thousands of volunteer wardens, while holding themselves ready for action in the event of a raid, might "make themselves available for other types of volunteer assignments in the protective or war agencies afield to relieve the increasingly critical shortages of volunteer manpower."

Lloyd M. Smith, acting director of the Ninth Civilian Defense Region, warned civilian defense volunteers that "this war is a long way from won" and added that "so long as the dimout is suspended, the importance of prompt and efficient blackout technique cannot be overemphasized."

Dr. Lois Todd, who lived in the Orient for many years, will be the principal speaker at next Tuesday's Chinese bazaar and tea that will be given at the Central School in Menlo Park under the auspices of the Menlo Park-Atherton Chinese Relief Committee Inc. and the Menlo Park Woman's Club.

Dr. Todd will talk on "The Place of Women in the Future of China." She is a resident of Palo Alto and an assistant professor of hygiene at Stanford.

Chinese notables from the Bay Area will be special guests at the bazaar. Mrs. C. T. Feng, wife of the Chinese consul to San Francisco, will be present as will Miss Ling-fu Yang, Chinese artist, who is making her home in Palo Alto.

Chinese atmosphere will dominate the decorations and the women and young girls on the serving committee will wear Chinese costumes. The Chinese national anthem will be sung on the musical program that is being arranged by the woman's club.

The bazaar will feature a large assortment of gifts, each marked with the Chinese symbol for victory. The hours for the event are from 2 to 4 o'clock and tickets can be purchased at the door. They cost 50 cents each and include the musical program and tea.
